

Autumn Semester 2016 Registration

Professional Course on The Cultural Interaction between Islam and Western Societies

The Islamic Research and Information Center (IRIC) is planning to hold its new semester of educational classes from Mehr 8th, 1395 (September 29, 2016).

All interested individuals with an acceptable Islamic knowledge and ability in comprehension and conversation in English are invited to attend and contact IRIC for more information and registration.

New students should apply by submitting their resume and application to the IRIC email address before Shahrivar 27th, 1395 (September 17, 2016).

Enrollment is open to any previous and current student of the professional courses.

For more information, please contact:

Tell: (+9821) 88948320

Email: info@iric.org

The classes will be held on Thursdays from 9 to 12 a.m. and two courses will be offered.

An Introduction to the History of Christianity

by Dr. Abdullah Edrisi

Islam Against Extremism

by Dr. Parviz Salmani

Conditions for Enrollment:

- Tuition fee per each course is 1.500.000 Rials.
- For those honors students who attend all sessions and achieve top grades, tuition fee will be waived and returned.
- Final session of these courses will be held on Bahman 7th, 1395 (January 26, 2017).
- Due to the limited seating capacity of the classroom, early registration is advised.
- Honors students will be invited to participate and cooperate in IRICs' projects.